SPRING 2026

A SPRING AWAKENING –

Coastal Bloom

This season, Lexington invites you into a world where hydrangeas sway in the salt air, garden parties drift into dusk, and everyday moments are punctuated by soft spring sunlight that dances through open windows.

Rooted in the timeless elegance of Martha's Vineyard and the breezy charm of Cape Cod, the Spring 2026 Home Collection is a tribute to a season in full bloom. With light linens, soft florals, and crisp stripes, it captures the ease of spring and the art of everyday refinement.

From windswept florals and romantic scalloped edges to airy linens and coastal stripes, this collection is a love letter to the slower, softer moments that make spring feel like a new beginning. Every piece is crafted to bring beauty into the everyday—with ease and charm. Key pieces in the collection include:
